

The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 28, 2009 ~ Cycle B

From our pastor, Msgr. Cramblitt....

Later this week I will be going back to school! Most students look forward to time off in the summer. When summer comes and life at The Shrine slows down I look forward to the opportunity to do some study. I will be at the American College of the Immaculate Conception, which is in Louvain – about 30 miles east of Brussels, Belgium. Louvain is the site of the oldest functioning Catholic university in the world, the Catholic University of Louvain, founded in the 1400's. I will be attending lectures in four courses. One of these is in the gospel of John, two are in the area of ecumenism and one is in the area of moral decision making. These courses are spread over a month. I hope to have the opportunity to travel on the weekends, as well. I will keep you in prayer while I am away and I hope you will do the same for me. May God bless us and give all of us a wonderful summer.
