

The Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 30, 2009 ~ Cycle B

From the Pastor, Msgr. Rick Cramblitt...

WHERE DID IT GO??? Already summer vacation season is coming to its end. Our school opens full time tomorrow and the Sunday morning Faith Formation classes begin soon. I hope we are all returning to our routines well rested and renewed by the summer break.

The Pastoral Council will have its first meeting of the season this week. On the agenda is time for pastoral staff members to speak about the new initiatives we are planning for this year. These include youth ministry, Sunday's Child, CLOW (Children's Liturgy of the Word), our First Friday program, and the upcoming series of Ministry Sundays.

I especially call your attention to the Harvest Home '09 Crab Feast on October 24. Mark your calendar and save the date! It will be great fun! Who can resist a crab feast??? In Maryland there is nothing better.

The Labor Day weekend is this coming weekend. The parish office will be closed on Monday, September 7.

If you have been away for the summer please remember to make up your parish stewardship offerings for the weeks you were away. The parish operations depend on your regular and faithful stewardship! Thank you.
